

MASTER CLASS in BARCELONA

Mr Fernando Perez Vth Dan and official member of F.I.T.E in Barcelona organized the first master class with the International Instructor Jose Maidana VI Dan current national trainer of Argentina. The Sports hall of Sant Boi hosted the event; 50 students juniors and seniors and many spectators in the hall looking the special event.

From 10 to 12 hs in the morning, Mr. Maidana only work with juniors showing his long experience in different teaching methods. Juniors trained very hard the patterns, and enjoyed very much with the self defense.

At 12 in the morning seniors came into the hall for training together with the juniors.

At 13.00 pm finished the master class for juniors and the organization gave participation certificates.

In the afternoon started with seniors training.

The first part of the afternoon all the seniors performed the different patterns where Mr Maidana corrected every movement. After answer all the questions started with sparring methods where the students enjoyed very much.
